SUNDAY MORNING FIRE.

The Holman Residence the Scene of a Destructive Blaze.

About 2 o'clock Sunday morning the fire department was called out to extinguish a fire within two blocks of the city hall. The residence of Mrs. John Holman at 376 High street was the scene of the conflagration, and the building and its contents were practically ruined.

Mrs. Holman was absent at Newport and the only occupants of the house were Mrs. Thos. Holman and her nephew, Freddie Meyer, Thos. Holman, being also absent in Albany.

Mrs. Holman discovered the fire and raised an alarm by her cries of fire, and H. George Meyer, notified the fire department which responded promptly.

Mrs. Holman and the boy were taken from the upper story on a ladder, the stairway being shut off by flames and smoke.

The fire had a good start and the wonder is that any part of the house or contents was saved. Some few of the movables were carried out by the firemen and neighbors, and the charred wreck of the fine upright piano sits outside, but the most of the contents, including fine silverware, cut glass and china, costly bric-a-brac and beautiful furniture are a total loss.

By the efforts of the fire boys, the front of the house was preserved intact though damaged by smoke and water, but toward the rear the house is a wreck.

The house was insured in the Fireman's Fund Ins. Co. for $800, and the contents for $500. The latter amount will come nowhere near covering the loss.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holman were at Newport, but the former will come to Albany today, when he will be informed of the misfortune.

The Governor's Father.

Salem will be honored by a visit for several weeks from Herman J. Geer, father of the present governor of Oregon. He resided in Salem in 1862, but has since lived at Cove, Union county. He bears a striking resemblance to his son, the governor, and they would more often be taken for brothers. Mr. Geer came up on the same train with his son this morning from Portland and the latter did not know his father was aboard until the conductor notified him at Brooks that there was an old gentleman in the front car would like to see him.

"Tell him to come in here and see me," said the governor. When he came it was quite a surprise. Mr. Geer, Sr., is a very well preserved man for his age.

More Horses Arrive.

Five horses arrived today for the State Trotting park. Ed. Glassford and C. D. Matlock were in charge of them. They are: Baby Ruth trotter, record 2:26 1/2, owned by Gardner; Bertie Williams trotter, owned by Williams; a four-year-old green colt, owned by Smith, all of Walla Walla. There are also two runners from Heppner, owned by B. J. Matlock.

"Hail to the Second Oregon."

The poem written by Judge Judah, of this city, by the above title seems destined to wide circulation.

Prof. Parvin has set it to music and a large edition is being printed by Cronin & Conover. It will be in the hands of the public tomorrow. The net proceeds go to the state monument fund.

SETTLED AT LAST

The Regiment Will Be Entertained at the State House.

Special Reception for Co. "K" at Salem Will Come Later—Everything Satisfactory.

After weary days of working and waiting for definite information, upon which the patriotic people of Salem could base a plan of action to do honor and give welcome to the returning Oregon volunteers, there is now an appearance of daylight, and a program is mapped which leaves no doubt of success.

It has been decided that when the regiment arrives here on the forenoon of the 10th, the men will be marched to the state capitol, where tables will be spread in the basement and a lunch served. Messrs. Cland Gatch and T. C. Smith yesterday evening obtained the courtesy of the state building from Secretary of State Dunbar and all arrangements are now fully under way in competent hands.

Mrs. Moore, wife of Associate Justice F. A. Moore, has consented to take charge of the refreshment tables, and all the ladies who are willing to assist in waiting on the soldiers are requested to report as soon as possible to Mrs. Moore at her home in the Hodgkin residence on the corner of Court and Summer streets.

The construction of the necessary tables is under the direction of competent parties and is progressing without any delay, so that the mechanical work will be ready when needed.

The following letter was received on Sunday by Frank Davey from Capt. Elmer O. Worrick, which confirms the general impression that the various companies desire to stop at their homes, where they can meet their loved ones and receive the greetings of their friends and neighbors:

"At this time I can not state definitely, how many of the boys will come home in a body, but I believe you can safely count on seventy-five. There are a few who desire to go home by water, or on some other date than the one set for the regiment to leave San Francisco. I do not think the Southern Oregon, and valley companies will go to Portland. They all want to stop at their homes and no one can blame them for desiring.

Bert Lowe is improving rapidly, and will come with us. No one is seriously ill in "K" Co. I will write again in a day or two and will telegraph when we are about to start for home."

The arrangements as now mapped out seem to be entirely satisfactory. The people of the surrounding country will have an opportunity of seeing such portion of the regiment as lives in Salem, Portland, Eastern Oregon and the west side towns, something over 700 men in all, and of paying their respects to these men who have won all honor and distinction possible to a patriotic soldier, and who have valiantly maintained the credit of their state and nation.

It is due to the people at home to do the honors generously and creditably. Lay aside the work of shops and farm for one day and give hearty welcome to the returning soldiers. Bring your store the good things of the pantry and spread them forth in whole-souled hospitality. Respond to the requests of the various committees and make this re-
